Actor Bio:

Austin developed a passion for performing from the age of 6 within film, TV and commercials. He took a break professionally to focus upon childhood and school around age 12. At that time, he continued to develop his passion on stage in local and regional theatre productions. Throughout the years he developed his talents playing various percussion instruments as well as piano and guitar; becoming a quadruple threat with vocals, dance, acting and musical instruments. In the Fall of 2020, Austin will become a musical theatre major pursuing a BFA while returning to professional performance.
