Actor Bio:

Radio Announcer/Singer/Songwriter/Actress Christiann Adams began a successful radio career on-the-air hosting a jazz show on an NPR station in the St. Louis market before working behind-the-scenes in New York and L.A. with broadcasting's biggest personalities in news/talk/sports. She is back on WSIE-FM as on air announcer/host while back in the area handling family matters. When she was in New York CBS

Christiann Adams

SAG-AFTRA

trusted Christiann to engineer the live radio broadcast of the Super Bowl. Christiann shot her first close-up playing a nurse in the Kurt Russell film "Soldier." She co-starred in the television pilot "Me and My Needs" starring Nicole Sullivan. She has acted in commercials for Mercedes Benz and Tire Kingdom and commercial print ads for Discover Card, MCI, IBM and many others in New York City and Los Angeles. A lyric-writing class taught by Barry Manilow co-writer Marty Panzer was the catalyst for her songwriter self to emerge. One year later she had a song contract with a music publisher. Christiann has been a three-time Best Performance and three-time Best Song winner at the West Coast Songwriters Hollywood Showcase. "Brilliant vocals and signature flair" was written of her Songsalive! Showcase performance. Christiann is a member of SAG-AFTRA, BMI, Society of Singers and West Coast Songwriters.
