Actor Bio:

Clay is mixed ethnicity - Black/Caucasian and Native American - he is a registered member of the Tule River Indian Tribe - he can pass for most non-Caucasian ethnic groups.

Clay worked as stunt double and Ghost Nation warrior on "West World Season 2" and was Nominated for a SAG award for member of an Ensemble Stunt team.

He was in 1 episode as warrior on "The Son", and most recently as Bandit #4 on a "Timeless " episode (2918).

He is an expert horseman; he participated in an equine stunts workshop (Feb 2018) that included horse falls and saddle falls. He earned a feature scene in the WW finale that includes falling off a cliff (vid can be sent via email).

Clay has extensive experience with all facets of western cowboy lifestyle including riding, roping, branding, shooting guns, etc.

Clay has taken acting lessons and is interested in both acting and stunts. With his mixed ethnicity, killer smile, high level of fitness and sports skills - particularly basketball, football, and beach volleyball - ability to take direction and work long hours, and the universal "every man" appeal, Clay has proven attractive to directors, stunt coordinators, fellow performers and fans.
