Actor Bio:

As a native speaker of Korean, who grew up, graduated from college and worked as a journalist/actor in Seoul before moving to the U.S. in 1997, I can assist in all facets of a production that requires Korean language services such as voice-over (lip-sync or not), script translation, proofreading/editing, on-site, off-site and remote dialogue coaching & consulting, and interpreting among other things. In addition, North Korean dialects coaching and consulting is also available for those who care about authenticity. For more information, please visit my websites listed above, call or text via 310-266-3004, or email me at elenachang1@gmail.com for more information. Thank you!
