Actor Bio:

American-Asian actor, NYC born and based, lives in #ChinatownNYC.

Geoff was a Rock Musician, late 70s-early 80s, and his first SAG movie was Magic Sticks (German) in which he played Tom, the guitar player. Geoff does seek roles with an "edge", ideally combining music with acting, which may be outside of common Asian and Asian-American stereotypes. In 2013, Geoff played 3 roles in the combi-character of Mr. Ping in the award winning 'The Exquisite Corpse Project'. Geoff played a lead role in video/theatre production, 'A Shanghai Hand'(2014) taped in studio and screened at Tribeca Film Center, by Dominick Rossetti. Geoff is Jin, Reddington's reflexologist, on The Blacklist (2019), and he guest-starred with Bob Saget in the second season of the Nightcap comedy series. November 2020, Geoff played HYH in the David Henry Hwang play Yellowface - live streaming theater by PlayUpstream Theater Co. Latest TV role is a day player, Mr. Ambassador, in the Ways and Means CBS TV pilot (2021), working with Patrick Dempsey.
