Actor Bio:

Isis Chanel Chambers SAG-AFTRA

Isis Chanel Chambers was born July 2015, making her a Leo, so Isis can be a little bossy. When she was five weeks old, Isis booked her first commercial as the Hero Baby for a Bill and Melinda Gates PSA. Since then, she has booked frequent engagements. Isis loves the camera, and the camera loves her.

Isis started dancing when she was just a baby and was given the nickname, Shakes. At the age of two, Isis began dance classes. She dances to all types of music pretty much anything with a beat. However, Isis specializes in hip hop and ballet.

When she was eight months old, Isis began taking gymnastics classes but recently gave up that activity when she was five due to having other activities. Swimming and playing soccer are two sports that Isis loves. Isis is quite a busy body and has a great deal of energy.

Isis has appeared in numerous television commercials and programs. She appeared in Grey's Anatomy and 911. Isis also was featured in televised ads for nationally known entities such as Walmart, Paw Patrol, and KeyBank. Another talent Isis has is doing voiceovers. You can hear her voice in My Mom Is a Superhero as the voice of Lisa. Modeling is one more avenue in which Isis has shared her talent. She has appeared in Big City Kids Magazine, Asher and Olivia Brand, Remie Girl Brand, and others.

Isis loves road trips and traveling. She has traveled extensively and seen such sites as the Grand Canyon, Red Rock Canyon, Mt. Charleston, Mountain High Resort, San Diego, and Catalina Island. During her travels, Isis fell in love with the snow and the beach.

Because Isis loves everything pink and girly, she acquired the name, Princess Isis Chanel. Most of her wardrobe is fashionably pink. Princess Isis Chanel is looking forward to all that life has to offer her.
