Actor Bio:

A seven-time Award winning actor, Jack was born and raised in New York City and started in the entertainment business as a lead vocalist and guitarist for various popular rock & roll bands. He got a taste of success with his very first film, 'Porky's', directed by Bob Clark. After the sequel, 'Porky's II: The Next Day', Jack continued to do roles in films and television including Law & Order; NYPD Blue; Awakenings; and Cadillac Man.

Jack caught a break in the spring of 1993 when he met the first-time director, Edward Burns. They began discussing a story that Burns had started writing called 'The Brothers McMullen' and Burns offered Jack the lead role of Jack McMullen, the conflicted eldest brother. 'McMullen' went on to become one of the most successful independent features in film history as well as garnering several illustrious awards, including 1995's Best Picture at Robert Redford's Sundance Film Festival and Best Picture at the 1995 Deauville Film Festival. 'Brothers' was also the very first acquisition of Fox Searchlight, the art film division of 20th Century Fox.

Recently, Jack has turned his attention to writing, producing and directing.

Two Off-Broadway plays that he has starred in are 'Primetime' and 'Friction'. 'Prime Time' opened at the Lion Theater in Theater Row to rave notices and 'Friction' was staged at Theater 3.

Another project in the works is Jack's one-man-show that he is writing, THE PHEENOM, based on the book A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to Cooperstown about the life of former Major Leaguer Mickey McDermott.

An all-around athlete, Jack continues to compete on the ballfields of Central Park. He is the Commissioner of the Performing Arts Softball League and his Late Show team (sponsored by Dave Letterman) has won the Championship three times in the last five years.

Jack also participates in several charity events and organizations such as The Jackie Robinson Foundation, The Juvenile Diabetes Foundation, The Carol M. Baldwin Breast Cancer Research Foundation and The Katrina Fund.

Jack is also an elected Local Board Member of SAG-AFTRA, a Vice-Chair of both the National Low Budget Film Committee and the SAGindie Film Committee. In addition, Jack was part of the most recent successful 2017 SAG-AFTRA/AMPTP negotiations that helped unify the contracts and brought the membership its latest 3 year TV and Theatrical deal.

Jack lives on the Upper West Side of Manhattan, his lifelong home.
