Actor Bio:

I play a wide variety of characters along the limitless, spying-minds-spectrum. I am often cast as the far more unreasonable characters in the drama/horror/thriller section. Serial killers, the hunters or the hunted, roads never traveled. I've done a lot of those creeps and screeching atmospheric possessed-like phantoms. Over the top comedy is my livelihood. Jim Carrey and Will Farrell could take your feet off and leave their shoes at the door! I'm a whole lot more of a HERO than I am a VILLIAN in my heart and soul, but you've got to know your enemy well..

My first stage experiences were in grade school. My music teacher would write, direct, and arrange musical theater and we were the performers.

SAG-AFTRA

Music took me to New Orleans when I was 21 and film tax credits in Louisiana brought in some films. So acting took it's course, and along with a little help from a beast of a hurricane #Katrina and a relative living in Phoenix, I skipped over to Los Angeles in 2008 and started acting full time.

As of 2014, I've been performing theater with Chris Berube at The Berubian Theater Company (NextStage Theater) and I'm working on several feature films every month. Busy, blessed and fortunate to be getting a full workload!

It's crazy how my first film acting gig was in 2005 and it took 3 states and four years to become SAG eligible and I just now finally joined SAG in 2014. That's a mathematicians exemplar. 9 fucking years
