Actor Bio:

Lea Croteau | Professional Driving and Racing Bio:

Lea Croteau
SAG-AFTRA

Since 1993, Lea has been a track regular, coach and competitor. She has compiled podiums and championships in the Mid-Atlantic Road Racing Championship, the Valvoline SCCA National Championship Runoffs, the ESPN2 PPG Neon Challenge ProRacing Series, NASA and World Racing League 24 Hour Endurance Racing Series, the Tire Rack One Lap of America, Rally America Regional and National Competition.

Lea's skills have honored her also with a prolific professional driving career with premiere automotive and motorsports companies. From in-car instruction to demonstration driving and lead follow coaching, Lea Croteau's been involved with several elite driving and racing schools: Bridgestone Winter Driving School, Skip Barber Racing School, BMW Performance Center, Ford Performance Racing School, Lexus Performance Driving School, and Porsche Sport Driving School. She also has held positions as a Pace Car Driver for the PPG CART/Indy Pace Car Series worldwide, and Drift Expert on the Marlboro Ford Mustang Hot Lap Drift Program. With over two decades of experience at The Bridgestone Winter Driving School and the lead instructor position, Lea is considered a low friction ice-driving specialist.

Lea's driving and racing experience has led to several positions as precision driver on television and film. She has performed stunt driving on NCIS New Orleans and Hawaii, the film movie Need For Speed (drove all scenes featuring Zumbata and Poots), automotive television commercials, camera-rigged vehicles (on asphalt and ice), news specials on winter driving; training and entertainment features including NBC, CNN, ABC, CBS and the Outdoor Channel; and featured on the video for Bridgestone Winter Driving Schools The Fastest Ride on Ice. Also seen in appearances in television, radio and print media including the Today Show, Good Morning America, Outdoor Channel, CNN, ABC, CBS, NBC, USAToday, Grassroots Motorsports, Automobile, and AutoWeek.
