Actor Bio:

Steve Sapz (Entertainment Professional) is known for creating excitement and emotion in all aspects of his life-professional, and personal. He is intrigued by people and their environments. His emotional range and unique input reveals the soul of the life he portrays, creating powerful connecting messages that seize the hearts of everyone he meets.

With well-grounded technical skills and business sense, Steve is known to deliver quality work with outstanding results. His first stage appearance was with the comedy hit Get Smart, and he has been in love ever since. A year later, his role as a versatile Protean in A Funny Thing Forum (2002) earned him much recognition as a physical and multitalented comedic actor. His other stage credits later include period pieces such as A Midsummer Night's Dream (2005), and Othello (2006); other notable appearances include the hit musicals GYPSY (2005), and Pirates of Penzance (2004).

Aside from the stage, Steve has also made notable appearances with the short films, Loosing Reality (2003), Walls (2003), and Something to Fight For (2003), which garnered much acclaim at the Red Bank Film Festival. Most recently, Steve has joined SAG-AFTRA, Wilhelmina PA, and has been featured in such Hollywood movies as Step Up 3D (2010), commercials such as EchoRed (ft. Vanessa Hudgens), and the TV shows Gossip Girl and White Collar.

Steve Sapz contributes both locally and internationally to ALL areas of art, entertainment, and life; commercial advertising campaigns, Television, Stage, Film, Radio, catalogs and editorial spreads.

Currently based in the local New York, and New Jersey Area.
