Actor Bio:

William(Bill) Crouch spent his childhood in eastern Nebraska. In his early teens he enjoyed watching and going to professional wrestling matches held in Omaha so much he decided to try that as a profession after college. Trained by Vern Gagne and English star Billy Robinson in Minneapolis he moved to Charlotte, North Carolina and wrestled there for a time. He wrestled in the AWA and NWA for most of his career and was even asked to go to South Korea for an eight week tour. His first film was The Wrestler(1974) with Vern Gagne being the Executive Producer. He started theater acting in 1995 and continued until 2005. He now makes New Mexico home.
